

The John Libby Family Association

is proud to announce the availability of a new book about the founding of Scarborough, Maine

OWASCOAG

Place of Much Grass
The Settlement of Black Poynt, Mayne
In the Settlers Own Words
1605 – 1800

Written by:
Patricia Bowden Corey

Illustrated by:
James M. Corey

$20.⁰⁰ plus $2.⁵⁰ Shipping and Handling

(Please state that you are ordering this book because you saw it mentioned on the JLFA WebSite)

To Order – Send a Check to:
Patricia Corey
148 Breakwater Dr. – Unit #18
So. Portland, ME
04106

For an additional $3.⁰⁰ she can also send you the “Trelawny Papers” and John Libby data and a copy of John Libby’s Will and a couple of other flyers.

Pat was the featured Guest Speaker at the 2008 JLFA Reunion. Her book is comprised mainly of original historical documents by such notables as: Samuel Champlain, Sir Ferdinando Gorges, Christopher Levett, Edward Trelawney, John Winter, Thomas Cammock, and John Josselyn.

Several of our Libby ancestors are mentioned in the various documents. Anyone interested in the history of the struggles that our ancestors underwent to establish the town of Scarborough, Maine should own a copy of this superb book. This book is really fascinating, especially as the documents were written by those who actually lived through the events mentioned.